Spotlight on Grace: Nature's Splendor on Display

The glorious Easter flowers that adorned the church on Easter Sunday weren't the only sources of bold new colors on our campus last weekend. A gorgeous landscape painting by plein-air artist and Grace Church parishioner Nancy Friese now adorns The Pavilion at Grace. The large painting -- titled Rim of Sunlight and Trees -- is on loan to Grace Church. We would like to express our gratitude to Nancy Friese and to contemporary art dealer and fellow Grace parishioner Cade Tompkins for making this possible. As you will see if you haven't already, the painting is just a perfect fit for the space, and their hope is to eventually have three additional works installed as a series depicting landscapes in each season. You will find schematic representations of the full series hung to either side of this first painting.

Please enjoy the following video segment featuring the artist herself for some insight into her process and philosophy.

From the website of Cade Thompson Projects:

Working consistently as a plein-air artist for the past thirty years, Nancy Frieze's work captures the natural spontaneity and intertwining of clusters of trees and foliage beneath lively skies. Frieze's work departs from traditional plein-air painting with heightened color and animated brush strokes. Frieze's work is held in numerous public and private collections including the Boston Public Library, the New York Public Library, North Dakota Museum of Art, the RISD Museum, and the Yale University Art Gallery.

The Second Sunday of Easter

Almighty and everlasting God, who in the Paschal mystery established the new covenant of reconciliation: Grant that all who have been reborn into the fellowship of Christ's Body may show forth in their lives what they profess by their faith; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
