Please join us on Sunday, December 4 at 5 PM for A Service of Lessons and Carols for Advent. This moving and beautiful service has its roots (as do many of our services) in England. Here is a bit of history courtesy of St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Houston Texas:

The Procession with Carols on Advent Sunday originated at King's College, Cambridge, England in 1934, composed by Dean Eric Milner-White (who had also been responsible nine years earlier for the more widely known Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols for Christmas Eve). In his Preface to the Advent Sunday service, Dean Milner-White wrote: 'In the old English liturgies, the Advent Offices made a preparation for the coming of our Lord to this earth far more vivid and eager than those of our present [1662] Prayer Book. So an Advent Carol Service, if without precedent, is not without suitability, if it helps to express "the desire of all nations and ages." The purpose of the service is 'not to celebrate Christmas, but to expect it.'

At Grace, we begin the service with a candle-lit church and the choir gathered in the narthex for the singing of Palestrina's great Matin Responsory. During the hymn "Come, thou, redeemer of the earth" the choir moves into the chancel. What follows is a sequence of readings, hymns and carols, with the choir processing around the nave of the church and singing from various locations. This is "surround sound" at its very best! The service culminates with the choir returning to the chancel for the final anthem - the splendid double-choir setting of "Hail! Gladdening Light" by Charles Wood.

We hope you can be with us for this very special service. Invite a friend or neighbor and share the beauty of Grace Church and the exquisite music which will be offered.

Meditations, Devotions and Resources for Advent

AdventWord Grace Church will participate in #AdventWord, featuring daily meditations highlighting a one-word theme. During Advent, you may see related images -- like the one at right -- created by Teens in Action during 2015. Please stay tuned to Grace's Facebook, Twitter and Instagram feeds for related content. If you feel inspired, please submit an image that speaks to you about any given Advent word, and we may post yours too. Please take a moment to sign up here to receive your daily AdventWord meditations, and take part in this spiritual journey with us.

Liberated by God's Grace

Please watch for weekly Sunday inserts that we will place at the back of the church, as part of an Advent series called Liberated by God's Grace. Episcopal Church Presiding Bishop Michael Curry joined the leaders of the Anglican Church of Canada, the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada, and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America in preparing Advent Devotions for the upcoming liturgical season, and these advent devotions form part of the broader discussions surrounding the 2017 commemoration of 500 years of the Reformation. "As churches shaped by the 16th century reformations[...], we also participate in this ministry of reconciliation," they noted in a joint letter. "Over fifteen years ago, our churches' respective full communion agreements inaugurated new relationships in which we fully recognized each other 'as churches in which the gospel is truly preached and the holy sacraments duly administered' (Called to Common Mission), an achievement that 'marks but one step toward the eventual visible unity of the whole Church catholic' (Waterloo Declaration). We are committed to working together toward reconciliation-of the church, and of the deepest social ills that plague our world. It is our hope, together with you, to be signs of anticipation-of the 'already, but not yet' of God's realm of reconciliation, justice, and peace."

Make Ready the Feast

The Episcopal Church's Advent campaign will focus on daily themes highlighting cultural practices and traditions around planning, preparing, and enjoying food special to the holiday season. Each day of Advent, recipes will be posted to a new blog: Make Ready the Feast.

December 4, 2016 - The Second Sunday of Advent

Merciful God, who sent your messengers the prophets to preach repentance and prepare the way for our salvation: Give us grace to heed their warnings and forsake our sins, that we may greet with joy the coming of Jesus Christ our Redeemer; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.
