Spotlight on Grace: A Thanksgiving Message from the Rector

Friends,

As a parish, we have much to be thankful for: our thriving Sunday School and music programs, our diverse and faithful congregation, and the construction of our new pavilion, which progresses steadily week after week. I am also deeply thankful for the wonderful staff and lay leadership at Grace. I regularly give thanks to God for bringing me to this unique parish!

As a country, it may feel, to many of us, less natural to give thanks in a time of societal division and national uncertainty. But in times such as these (and there have been difficult times in our nation's past, too, of course), it is still fitting to give thanks to God that we live in a land that can survive such periods and indeed emerge stronger than we were before.

After all, it was in the midst of the greatest crisis in our nation's history, the Civil War, that President Abraham Lincoln proclaimed, for the first time, a national holiday of "Thanksgiving and Praise to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the Heavens." At that time, some Americans may have asked, "How can we give thanks in a time of so much division?" The answer then remains the same as it is today: We give thanks because even in hard times, our courage and our hope is never extinguished. That hope has been well founded for 240 years. The nation that emerged from the Civil War, though still far from perfect, was a better and more just society than it had been before. President Lincoln was right to give thanks in the midst of that national crisis, and we are right to give thanks now.

Happy Thanksgiving,
Jonathan+

Meditations, Devotions and Resources for Advent

If you feel inspired, please submit an image that speaks to you about any given Advent word, and we may post yours too. ### Liberated by God's Grace

Please watch for weekly Sunday inserts that we will place at the back of the church, as part of an Advent series called Liberated by God's Grace. Episcopal Church Presiding Bishop Michael Curry joined the leaders of the Anglican Church of Canada, the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada, and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America in preparing Advent Devotions for the upcoming liturgical season, and these advent devotions form part of the broader discussions surrounding the 2017 commemoration of 500 years of the Reformation. "As churches shaped by the 16th century reformations[...], we also participate in this ministry of reconciliation," they noted in a joint letter. "Over fifteen years ago, our churches' respective full communion agreements inaugurated new relationships in which we fully recognized each other 'as churches in which the gospel is truly preached and the holy sacraments duly administered' (Called to Common Mission), an achievement that 'marks but one step toward the eventual visible unity of the whole Church catholic' (Waterloo Declaration). We are committed to working together toward reconciliation-of the church, and of the deepest social ills that plague our world. It is our hope, together with you, to be signs of anticipation-of the 'already, but not yet' of God's realm of reconciliation, justice, and peace."

Make Ready the Feast

The Episcopal Church's Advent campaign will focus on daily themes highlighting cultural practices and traditions around planning, preparing, and enjoying food special to the holiday season. Each day of Advent, recipes will be posted to a new blog: Make Ready the Feast.

November 27, 2016 - First Sunday of Advent

Almighty God, give us grace to cast away the works of darkness, and put on the armor of light, now in the time of this mortal life in which your Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge both the living and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through him who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Grace Cemetery: Help Save the Trees

After 3+ years of working to secure $100,000+ grant money to repair the fence around historic Gateway (Grace) Cemetery in south Providence that dates from 1834, we are excited that the revitalization is about to happen. Some the very old, elegant trees need attention, and a bit of additional money is needed to take proper care of them. Please consider saying "YES" to keeping green space alive by making a donation. The window of opportunity is tight, as work will be done very soon. $6,000 is available, and contributions are sought to match that; $1,100 has already given. If this opportunity touches you, please grab your check book right now and send a donation (marked "cemetery trees") payable to: SWAP, Inc., 439 Pine Street, Providence, RI 02907.

You will be listed on the "We Helped Save the Trees" registry in the cemetery gatekeeper's cottage. Also be sure to include your return address to receive a 501(c)3 charitable donation letter for your contribution. Securing and beautifying the cemetery grounds enhances the area for all. Be a part of this progress!
