Spotlight on Grace: Creating a Music Hall

There are many exciting changes happening at Grace Church right now. Some are centered around new construction, but another exciting project is underway which involves repurposing of an existing space, rather out of sight, and perhaps unnoticed by most parishioners. With the support of the Rector and Vestry, Gammell Hall (the former parish hall) is being renovated and renamed The Fred and Barbara Cronhimer Music Hall to accommodate our growing music program. The existing choir room will be repurposed into the nursery and church-school space.

Fred Cronhimer, pictured at right, served as Organist and Choirmaster from 1948 to 1971, and had a great influence on the musical life of Grace Church. It seemed appropriate that the hall bear his name. Cronhimer Hall will be home to our ever-expanding choir program - both children and adults - and will include a Music Library and Choir vesting area.

With the valuable help of parishioners (and former Cronhimer singers/ringers) Luci Scanlan, Joan Martin, Bob Nelson and Fred White, we have made contact with many Cronhimer-era alums. Having shared our exciting plans for this space, many have contributed generously to the cost of the restoration and conversion. Their generosity has also enabled us to repair and restore both stairwells leading down to Cronhimer Hall from street level.

There is still work to be done, but the custom music library shelves have been built, movable choir rehearsal desks are currently underway, and painting will soon begin. Another feature will be the prominent display of many historical choir photos mounted above the new library shelves. A new (rebuilt) baby-grand piano has been given, and will arrive soon.

Local artisan Lynn Clapham, Ph.D. stands beside prototypes he created at varying heights for the new standing rehearsal desks.

On Saturday, September 30, we will hold a special Evensong and dinner for the Cronhimer alums to dedicate and celebrate this wonderful new space for our music program. And on Sunday morning, October 1, we will recognize our guests in the morning service. What an exciting and appropriate way to utilize old but wonderful space while glorious new space rises alongside!
