Spotlight on Grace: Welcome the RSCM Choir this Sunday

This Sunday morning, July 28, we will venture back into the church for a very special celebration of the Holy Eucharist at 10 AM. Our choir will consist of the 120 voices of the Royal School of Church Music Newport Course, held from July 22 to 28.

This is the 10th anniversary year of the course, which has become one of the most popular of the RSCM summer-course offerings. The course was founded by Priscilla A. Rigg, long-time Director of Music at St. Luke's Church in East Greenwich.

The course draws boys and girls, men and women from all over the country for a week of intensive singing, learning, and fellowship. A service of Choral Evensong will be held tonight (Friday) at St. George's School Chapel, 372 Purgatory Rd. in Middletown, at 5:30 PM, and is open to the public (details below).

The Sunday morning Eucharist here will be our usual Grace service, with a few additions: a 120-voice choir; a choral setting of the service music (Gloria, Sanctus, Agnus Dei) sung by the choir; and an extra anthem or two. The service will likely be a bit longer than our typical Sunday morning Eucharist, but so worth it for the musical treats that are in store! And speaking of treats, thank you in advance if you are able to bring a little something extra for coffee hour this Sunday to share with our guest singers.

The Music Director this year is Scott Hanoian, Director of Music and Organist at Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, Michigan, and our own Vince Edwards is the Assistant Musical Director. The course organist is Janet Yieh, Associate Organist at Trinity Church, Wall Street, New York City.

To those coming for the 8:00am service in The Pavilion, please note that the morning arrival of the RSCM singers may occupy some parking spots in our lot, but additional parking is available in the lot diagonally across Westminster Street.

Seventh Sunday after Pentecost

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: Increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that, with you as our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we lose not the things eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
