

VIEWS OF GRACE

ANGELS IN THE ARCHITECTURE

RIGHT: The mural above the Chancel Arch. The heavenly hosts of angels sing, play instruments, and swing thuribles around the throne of God.

BELOW: Above the Vestry door is a relief of the Madonna and Child, attended by angels.

BELOW: A close-up of Christ Enthroned in Majesty, at the peak of the Chancel Arch. He is surrounded by cherub heads, angels swinging thuribles, and the heavenly choir most-likely singing the Te Deum laudamus.
