Tea Time Theology Returns!

Back by popular demand,
Tea Time Theology is a weekly podcast sponsored by The Episcopal Diocese of Rhode Island.

In the first episode of Season 2 this season's themes are introduced and Grace Church's own Morayo (Mo) Akande takes over as the new host of the podcast series. These upcoming episodes will feature a casual discussion about our collective experiences with COVID-19 and how we've stayed involved with church and our congregations during this time. We also explore how and what our society has deemed "essential" during the many lock downs, quarantines, and closures.

Voices of Grace: Virtual Worship

At Grace Church we are committed to building a loving and joyful community through worship despite temporarily not being able to gather as we normally would on Sundays or weekdays due to health concerns related to COVID-19. Until our normal rhythm of worship and gatherings resumes, every Sunday morning we will send an email, post on Facebook and upload to Vimeo and YouTube a short worship video put together by our staff that will feature clergy and parishioners participating in "virtual worship" by reading lessons from scripture, preaching, and making music all from their homes. Keep a look out for Voices of Grace: Virtual Worship every Sunday morning!

The Twenty-fourth Sunday after Pentecost

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.
