Spotlight: June Worship at Grace

This coming Sunday, Trinity Sunday, is the final Sunday of the choir season, as per our usual practice. This year, our brilliant staff singers and a few of our amazing volunteers have kept our spirits aloft as we've travelled through this pandemic from recorded worship to full in-person worship. Thank you, singers! Our summer season starts on June 6, and we foresee a continuation of return to normalcy at Grace, with the chalice at communion and coffee hour after services likely returning in some form. We will also welcome back our Summer Choir. In July, we will hopefully move to the Pavilion for worship as we've done in recent summers (so much cooler in there!), though we'll decide that closer to the time. Two things are for sure: The Wednesday 12 Noon Eucharist returns on June 9th and the Sunday 8:00 A.M. Eucharist returns on June 13th.

Next month's biggest celebration here at Grace will take place at 11:00 AM on June 12th – our own Hartwell Hylton's ordination to the priesthood. All are invited!

It was wonderful to have our doors fully open for the first time on Sunday to see some of you for the first time since last March as we celebrated Pentecost...and Easter! I look forward to seeing even more of you as we head towards summer. Welcome home to Grace!

May 30, 2021 The First Sunday after Pentecost: Trinity Sunday

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given to us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of your divine Majesty to worship the Unity: Keep us steadfast in this faith and worship, and bring us at last to see you in your one and eternal glory, O Father; who with the Son and the Holy Spirit live and reign, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
