Spotlight: New Murals in The Pavilion

Numerous parishioners and newcomers have remarked in recent weeks at the particularly inspiring worship services enjoyed here at Grace this Holy Week past. If you missed any of it, feel free to have a belated look & listen.

Beyond the exquisite music and flowers that distinguish our Easter celebrations, this year saw another new infusion of beauty and color as our Pavilion was adorned with four stunning works by renowned plein air artist, RISD Professor, and Grace Church parishioner Nancy Frieze. These vibrant landscapes depict scenes spanning each of the seasons.

We are very grateful to Nancy for kindly making these works available to us. Likewise, this undertaking would not have been possible without the considerable efforts of fellow parishioners Cade Tompkins, Liz Wheeler, and Bill Galligan.

Upcoming 'Grace Church Day' on Ascension Sunday

From the centennial History of Grace Church [1929]: "Ascension Day, May 1 [1913], saw the active operation of a plan dear to [the Rector's] heart, namely the observance of that festival as 'Grace Church Day,' comparable to Trinity Sunday or the appropriate Saints' Day for a Church bearing the name of the Trinity or of some saint." More than a century later, it's still a good idea! Ascension Sunday will therefore be celebrated on May 29th this year as "Grace Church Day" with a pot-luck lunch after the 10:00 AM Eucharist. The lunch is being coordinated by our Junior Warden, Diane Stamp. We'll need volunteers to help with set-up and/or clean-up that day, so if you're able to help, kindly let her know at deestamp@gmail.com You can also let her know what dish you will bring via email or by signing up on the poster in the Pavilion. Thank you!

The Fourth Sunday of Easter: Good Shepherd Sunday

O God, whose Son Jesus is the good shepherd of your people: Grant that when we hear his voice we may know him who calls us each by name, and follow where he leads; who, with you and the Holy Spirit, lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
